

CARLOS ROBERTO DE ZOPPA

Mechanical Engineer from Mauá School of Engineering, 1971 – SP

Master in Finance from Getúlio Vargas School of Business Administration (CEAG).

Former Board Directors' Member of Terra Brasis Resseguros S.A., local reinsurance company, where he worked for years in charge of Underwriting and Claims.

Former Executive Director of Itaú Seguros, where he worked two decades leading many different Commercial, Underwriting and Claims areas.

In former engagement, he was a Partner Director of Cooper Brothers, an international loss adjusting company. During more than one decade, he was responsible for loss adjusting of CAR – Contractors All Risks, EAR – Erection All Risks, Machinery Breakdown, Operational Risks/Named Perils and Business Interruption insurance and reinsurance claims for major industrial businesses throughout Brazil.

During professional career, he served in many insurance market institutional positions as member of Committee of Petrochemical Risks and CAR/EAR of today IRB – Brasil Resseguros S.A. and Technical Committee of Sprinklers of National Federation of Insurance Companies – FENASEG today FenSeg.

In an academic involvement, he is a former teacher of Mauá School of Engineering, FAAP - School of Engineering, School of Technology of São Paulo – FATEC, Fundação Escola Nacional de Seguros, today Escola Nacional de Seguros, Fundação Instituto de Administração FIA/USP and IBMEC.

Author of the chapter Princípios e Técnicas de Regulação e Liquidação de Sinistros of the book Seguros e Resseguros – Aspectos Técnicos, Jurídicos e Econômicos.

Arbiter of Câmara de Conciliação, Mediação e Arbitragem CIESP/FIESP in cases involving insurance and reinsurance.

Professional language: portuguese and english.

São Paulo, 28th October 2019